

INSTITUTIONAL POLICIES

Students must abide by all institutional policies, which are administered by pertinent departments and divisions across The University of Texas Health Science Center at San Antonio. Institutional policies are consistent with those that are also identified in the Health Science Center Institutional Handbook of Operating Policies.

For more detailed information, select a specific health science center catalog policy from the list.