GENERAL INFORMATION

UT San Antonio Health Science Center

2026-2027 Catalog

This catalog is a general information publication only. It is not intended to, nor does it, contain all regulations that relate to students. The provisions of this catalog do not constitute a contract, expressed or implied, between any applicant, student or faculty member and UT San Antonio Health Science Center or The University of Texas System. UT San Antonio Health Science Center reserves the right to withdraw courses at any time, and to change fees, tuition, calendars, curriculum, degree requirements, graduation procedures and any other requirements affecting students. Changes will become effective whenever the proper authorities so determine and will apply to both prospective students and those already enrolled.

UT San Antonio Health Science Center and all of its activities are subject to the Rules and Regulations of the Board of Regents of The University of Texas System.

The University of Texas at San Antonio is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC) (https://www.sacscoc.org/) to award baccalaureate, master's, and doctoral degrees. The University of Texas at San Antonio also may offer credentials such as certificates and diplomas at approved degree levels. Questions about the accreditation of The University of Texas at San Antonio may be directed in writing to the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges at 1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, GA 30033-4097, by calling (404)-679-4500, or by using information available on SACSCOC's website, www.sacscoc.org (https://www.sacscoc.org/). The university's CC&U accreditation has been reaffirmed through 2030.

The University of Texas at San Antonio Health Science Center is an approved, off-campus instructional site where >= 50% or more of academic programs are offered.

Per Public Law 101-542, The Student Right to Know and Campus Security Act, information on the graduation rate is available on request from the registrar. All students who enroll are required to be adequately immunized prior to registration. Students applying for admission may review The University of Texas at San Antonio institutional accreditation documents by contacting the Office of the senior institutional academic official. Information about program-level accreditation may be obtained at each school at UT San Antonio Health Science Center. Information regarding campus security and crime statistics is available from the university police department.

To the extent provided by applicable law, no person shall be excluded from participation in, denied the benefits of, or be subject to discrimination under any program or activity sponsored or conducted by the UT System or any of its component institutions on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, veteran status or disability. The component institutions of the UT System will make maximum use of resources, consistent with standards of appropriate accrediting bodies and enrollment and admissions policies approved by the board, to admit and educate as many qualified students as possible.
