MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of The University of Texas at San Antonio is to make lives better by advancing excellence in education;  research, discovery, and commercialization; health; public service; and community engagement.

Approved by The University of Texas System Board of Regents on November 21, 2024