MASTER OF SCIENCE IN NURSING - DIRECT ENTRY

Our program covers essential pre-licensure and advanced-level competencies, preparing you for nursing practice across various settings and patient populations. We emphasize promoting health as an act of social justice, equipping you to make a positive impact in your community.

This program is under development and pending approval.

Admission Requirements

- A baccalaureate degree or higher in a field other than nursing
- Completion of prerequisite courses
- A strong academic record and commitment to the nursing profession

Degree Requirements

- Completion of core nursing courses and specialty track courses
- Clinical practice hours to gain hands-on experience